Far From a Dark Horse

Rochester's "Snow Jay" Becomes An Unlikely Champion

It's a story laced with hints of both "The Ugly Duckling" and "Cinderella."

When Marie Ferri first saw the odd-looking Appaloosa in the fall of 1981, while he was stabled at the barn of Monica Dickens Stratton, the great granddaughter of Charles Dickens. Ms. Stratton was a kind woman who used to let her guests ride the white horse along the scenic Cape Cod bridle paths where she lived.

The horse's owner later brought the good-natured Appy — who had already earned a reputation as an excellent trail horse — to Ms. Ferri for riding lessons.

Not wanting to struggle with training two novices, Marie asked the woman if she could take "Snow Jay" — or "Jack," as everyone calls him — and train him herself. The woman agreed, and thus began a special relationship which has lasted to this day.

Two years later, when Jack's owner could no longer afford to keep him, Marie Ferri bought the Appaloosa, much to the chagrin of her husband, Peter.

"I think it was mostly his disposition which first attracted me to him," Ms. Ferri said.

That, in fact, could be the only attraction for a horse which she herself as described as an "ugly duckling." Most horse owners who lean toward the sleek look of a black beauty or the toned muscles of a brown horse would find Jack's appearance a bit disconcerting with his dull white coat, spotted face and pink eyes.

"He's built like a plowhorse," Ms. Ferri said. "He's also very big and heavy — not very refined."

After constructing a new home and barn in North Rochester — dubbed A. Small Farm after Augustus Small who owned the property in the 1700's — Marie and her husband brought Jack back to his native territory and entered the horse in several novice level competitions.

Soon Ms. Ferri learned that Jack was an adept jumper despite his awkward shape and size, and against her own better judgment and the opinion of most equestrian trainers, she entered her lovable Appaloosa in some of the more challenging equestrian competitions.

"He did so well in his first competitions," said Ms. Ferri. "He even beat two Olympic contenders at one point. Considering his size and weight, he shouldn't have been able to do what he did. But he's very agile and very athletic."

Sensing she had a find on her hands, Ms. Ferri and Jack went for training assistance at Apple Valley Farm in Harvard, MA. The visual differences between Jack and the collected warmbloods and Thoroughbreds was striking. "Everyone thought Jack was cute," Ms. Ferri said, "but I'm sure no one wanted to trade."

The rest, as they say, is history.

Marie and Jack went on to several big name competitions, including the Huntington Farm Dressage Competition on June 28-29, 1986, where they earned the reserve high point just behind a Bavarian warmblood shown by Lendon Gray, and the NEDA (New England Dressage Association) summer show in June, 1986, where they tied with an up-and-coming Hanoverian ridden by Bill Woods. In 1986, after one show season, Jack was presented with the First Place at Training Level All Breeds Award from the United States Dressage Federation, Inc.

As all good things must come to an end, Ms. Ferri soon realized that as a late bloomer about to reach age 14, Snow Jay was reaching his peak of excellence. Finding herself in a position where she couldn't afford to maintain the several horses she had, she decided to find another rider to take over and compete with Jack, with the stipulation that he is always welcome to come back to Marie at A. Small Farm in North Rochester.

After scrutinizing over potential candidates, she settled on Erinn O'Leary, another 14-year-old, who "loved (Jack) to death," according to Ms. Ferri. As Jack's new owner, Erinn and the Appy also managed to earn their share of honors in both the dressage and hunter classes.

After having been apart for a few years, Ms. Ferri later learned that the O'Leary's had sold Jack to the Kent School training facility in Connecticut where he was used to teach riding lessons. After much pleading and begging, Marie managed to get them to sell Jack back to her. As she proudly exclaimed, "Jack's back."

As he approaches the ripe age of 20 (about 60 in human years), Jack has lived a long, full life ... with a few great years still to come. Ms. Ferri uses him exclusively at her farm to teach beginners of all ages to ride and she hopes to one day retire him for use by handicap trainees.

"It's amazing, even if a kid starts to slide off, Jack will move under him so he won't be thrown," she said.

She is more than happy that the two are back together and looks back on their years of hard work and training with affection and pride. After all, in those early years she was the only one who had any faith in Appaloosa.

"He's still got some good years left in him," she said. "As they say, if you don't use it, you'll lose it, and I plan to let Jack do what he does best."

Marion Selectmen's Meeting

March 16, 1993

A meeting of the Marion Board of Selectmen was called to order on Tuesday, March 16 at 7:00 pm by Selectman James S. Dougall. Also present were Selectman Edwin "Ted" Pratt Jr. and Secretary Helene Craver.

After signing the warrants and payroll for the week, the board approved several seasonal licenses, credit memos and tax refunds, including a wine/malt liquor license for Harriet's Restaurant and the VFW Post on Route 6.

The board then approved the minutes of the March 9 meeting and went over incoming correspondence for the week, beginning with a notice from Peter Hodges citing a meeting of the Ad Hoc Capital Improvement Committee for ORR to be held on Thursday, March 25 at 5:00 pm in the Kunces Memorial Library of ORR High School.

The board next received a notice from the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) noting that the infiltration/inflow program planned for the town's sewer lines will not proceed as scheduled since the project has been by-passed for consideration of state funding. The project will remain on the "extended list" and will take place later in the fiscal year.

A memo was next received from Town Accountant Karen Gomez relative to a Feasibility Study for Regional P.P.O. Health Coverage for which the town applied for and received a grant from the state in 1989. The $9,000 awarded grant now has an additional $1,000 in matching funds and includes Marion, Mattapoisett, Rochester, Wareham, Bourne, Sandwich, and Carver.

The ORR School District next sent a copy of their certified vote for a tentative Maintenance and Operating Budget for fiscal year 1993-1994. According to Superintendent Joan Walsh, the budget uses on $21,000 of receipts to offset the 4.1 percent increase since they are not sure what the state receipts will be, pending Cherry Sheet figures.

Marion's tentative share under this proposal would be $1,780,618.86 in Operating Expenses and $5,235.66 in Capital Expenses for a total of $1,785,854.52.

Continental Cablevision next sent a check for $723.50 to the town representing the company's

According to Cable Advisory Committee Chairman Al Winters, the group has progressed nicely over the last few weeks and has received some 300 responses to their recent cable survey. "It's a very big job to tabulate them, probably bigger than we imagined," he said, "but we are moving ahead."

ORR Junior High School next sent a notice to the board concerning National Middle Level Education Week, as declared nationally from March 14 - 20, 1993. Selectman Dougall noted that he would have liked some more notice on the event, but the board nonetheless moved an official proclamation to the same effect, declaring March 14 - 20 as National Middle Level Education Week.

Scott W. Spencer of the North East Flagmen Service next sent the board a letter informing them that Com/Electric has called upon their company to direct traffic around any future road construction projects within the town. The decision on Com/Electric's part is due to the economic status and cutbacks throughout the Commonwealth.

The board said they pretty much agreed with Com/Electric's decision in light of the recent increases in detail work and the cutbacks throughout the state. "As far as I know, there's no law forbidding flagmen on detail sites," Selectman Dougall said. "It's really very economical in terms of jobs which move from one town to another. In the past, the company would have to rehire another officer in Rochester if they move from Marion. Now they can just bring the same flagman along with them."

"This is certainly the direct result of excessive costs for detail work over the years," Selectman Pratt said. "Frankly, I think it's become unreasonable and I don't blame them for hiring flagmen."

Selectman Dougall said it would probably take some time before the company could begin using flagmen exclusively and that they'd probably have to clear some obstacles first. "There would also be certain instances which I think would require a police officer in cases of heavy traffic," said Selectman Dougall.

The board next wanted to publicly commend the Department of Public Works and others who worked diligently through the weekend blizzard to make sure the roads were clear and that residents were safe. "I was very impressed by the way things geared up over the weekend," said Selectman Dougall. "The roads were well-plowed by Sunday morning, a safety shelter was opened at Sippican School, and both the police and fire departments put on extra personnel."

Selectman Pratt agreed and the board openly thanked all members of the public works, police, fire, and civil defense departments for the hard work.

Like other towns in the area, Marion suffered little major damage in the aftermath of the weekend blizzard. Selectman Dougall and Executive Secretary Ray E. Pickles had estimated that some $10,000 to $11,000 in damages had been incurred which may be Selectman Dougall also noted that DPW Superintendent Robert Zora notified the board that the Spring Flushing Program will be delay a few days due to the weekend storm.

There being no further matters to come before the Board of Selectmen, they adjourned to the Board of Health, whereby Chairman Edwin "Ted" Pratt began by noting a new handbook he has prepared for the future members of the newly-established Board of Health. The hefty handbook, which includes the Marion Sanitary Code and other state and federal legal health mandates, is to be used as a reference book for those serving on the Board of Health for the first time.

Regional Sanitarian Karen E. Walega sent a memo to the Board of Health recommending that they add a one foot factor to the groundwater test results conducted on March 5.

Another memo from Ms. Walega was sent concerning a Pre-rabies vaccine clinic to be held courtesy of the Acushnet Board of Health. According to Ms. Walega, the Acushnet board has planned for a physician to be present to administer a series of three shots which will be given seven days apart.

The Marion Police Department has notified her that 11 officers would like the vaccine in addition to both Animal Control Officers. The proposed costs would be:

- Each town in the district would contribute $286 for the physician
- The cost of the vaccine itself is $43.20/dose (3 doses to 15 people), totalling $1,944
- Titer test of $35 for all 15 people, totalling

The bottom line cost to the town would be $2,755, which the board agreed to authorize. Selectman Dougall also mentioned that as more cases of rabies are being discovered throughout the state (some cases have been cited with 60 miles of town), it would be wise to consider at least a temporary leash law to keep dogs restrained within the town limits.

"I really think we should start looking at this as a serious matter," he said. "It simply a matter of safety to prevent a child from being bitten by a rabid dog."

Selectman Pratt agreed. "I would order a temporary leash law as soon as we find instances of rabid raccoons within the area," he said. They further agreed to discuss the matter with Karen Walega at a later date.

There being no further matters to come before the board, they adjourned at 7:56 pm.

Rochester Selectmen's Meeting

March 15, 1993

A regular meeting of the Rochester Board of Selectmen was called to order on Monday, March 15 at 7:02 pm by Chairman Harry A. Brown Jr. Also present were Selectman Lorraine Roy Hawkes, Selectman David L. Hughes and Administrative Secretary Shirley Ferreira.

After approving the minutes of the March 8 meeting, the board moved to the Town Hall conference room for a special presentation to Town Clerk Naida L. Parker.

Ms. Parker was cited as the 5,000th Certified Municipal Clerk as conferred by the International Institute of Municipal Clerks (IIMC). On behalf of IIMC President Christina Wilder, Rehoboth Town Clerk Suzanne Winters presented Ms. Parker with a plaque commemorating her certification and honor. "(Ms. Parker) is only one of 76 Massachusetts Town Clerks to hold this designation," Ms. Winters said. "She truly represents the level of professionalism we hope all clerks will achieve. Through education and training, we strive to increase the professionalism and efficiency of local government."

Ms. Parker, who has served as the Rochester Town Clerk since 1984, completed a program for Municipal Clerks offered at Salve Regina University, Newport, RI. The program consists of over 100 hours of in-depth managerial/leadership courses.

She will also receive a special award during the annual IIMC Conference in Orlando, Florida on May 26.

The board then returned to the Selectmen's Office to continue their meeting, beginning with a memo from Regional Sanitarian Karen Walega in response to a request from the board last week relative to pre-rabies vaccinations for town police officers.

According to Ms. Walega, Chief Walter V. Denham has informed her that six officers would like to receive the vaccine shot. The vaccine consists of a series of three shots that will be administered through the Acushnet Board of Health. Breakdown of cost to provide the vaccine for all six is as follows:

- Physician Cost (each of the tri-towns will contribute) — $281.75
- $43.20/dose (3 doses/6 officers) — $777.60
- Titer test (6 officers at $35 each) — $210.00
- Total cost: $1,269.35.

Finance Committee Chairwoman Pat Ryan agreed there were funds available to be transferred to the Board of Health budget from the Reserve Fund for this purpose. The board agreed to fund the vaccinations for the six officers, noting that rabid raccoons have been reported within 60 miles of town.

At 7:20 pm, Chairman Brown called upon an appointment with Sen. Mark Pacheco to take up some concerns of Rochester and its residents. Chairman Brown started by pressing Sen. Pacheco as to the pending Education Reform Bill now being considered in the legislature.

"If I was sitting where you are, I'd be asking the same question," Sen. Pacheco agreed. "Hopefully we'll be taking up the Education Reform Bill within the next few weeks. The problem is that the bill is inclusive and involves many different (school) systems."

Sen. Pacheco explained that the bill as drafted has changed several times since first being introduced. According to his latest figures, however,

Rochester is in line with the recommended per pupil spending rate of $53.

With Cherry Sheet figures for FY 1993-1994 still pending, the town is unsure of what revenue will be available to them and how much they will be required to expend under the proposed state-mandated reform bill.

"Before I say anything definite and decide whether to support the bill or not, I want to know the exact figures in state aid from the Department of Revenue," Sen. Pacheco said. "The most I can say is plan for the worst and hope for the best."

"I agree with (Chairman Brown) in terms of the bill pitting the schools against the towns," Selectman Hawkes said. "I know of two towns in this area that will be forced to cut their operating budgets in half just to accommodate the school reform ... that's going to cause a great deal of friction."

The board also asked for Sen. Pacheco's assistance in getting reimbursements from the state for providing ambulance services to Medicaid clients and the town's problems with having to pay out unemployment benefits in excess of what they pay part-time personnel.

"We have some cases where the person's primary employer has laid them off and then they come after us as their secondary employer," said

Selectman Hughes. "In 90 percent of the cases, we are paying more in unemployment benefits than what we are in salaries."

Sen. Pacheco agreed to look into both matters for the board and stressed he would collaborate with Rep. William Straus on the second matter.

In closing, he noted that he will soon be sponsoring a public affairs program on cable television (public access) every week and will be participating in a Forum on the Regional Economy at UMass Dartmouth on Friday, March 19 from 8:15 am to 4:30 pm, to which the public is cordially invited.

Chairman Brown next called upon Dennis Luttrell, Executive Director of the Buzzards Bay Action Committee (BBAC) to bring the board up to speed on what the group has been doing over the last year.

Mr. Luttrell noted that the BBAC has received a $400,000 grant from the Department of Environmental Protection (DEP) to support their forthcoming projects for 1993-1994. Some of these plans include looking into hiring a Conservation Engineer and Wetlands Specialist for the three towns (Rochester, Mattapoisett, and Marion) to assist in keeping environmental concerns at the forefront.

Mr. Luttrell also noted that they will be working on repairing and upgrading septic systems

"I think the route you've been taking as far as applying for grants is the best way to go right now," agreed Selectman Hughes.

Returning to incoming correspondence for the week, Chairman Brown noted a check was received from SEMASS for $77,839.20 representing 40,968 tons received throughout the month of February.

A notice was received from the North East Flagmen Service informing the board that Com/Electric has asked the company to direct traffic around road construction projects that the utility company undertakes. In opposition to this, however, Police Chief Walter Denham sent the board a memo voicing his concern over safety in not having a uniformed police officer at the work sites. "A flagperson does not have any legal powers to stop a motor vehicle under Massachusetts State Laws," Chief Denham wrote. "Should a flagperson make a mistake at directing traffic at a detail site ... the Town of Rochester will be ultimately responsible."

In a follow-up memo to the board, Chief Denham noted that flagmen were used for two days during details in Rochester but he has spoken to Com/Electric officials about the matter and as of 3:30 pm Friday (March 12) no flagmen will be used on said details. Chief Denham will also meet with Com/Electric officials at a later date to resolve the situation. Chairman Brown said he agreed with Chief Denham's view as flagmen are not as meticulously trained and cannot legally stop traffic, only redirect it.

The board next received a request from the Plymouth County Data Processing Department who assist municipalities in the county in collecting outstanding parking citations. Since the County Commissioners have contemplated abolishing the processing system, the department has asked the town to support their efforts, to which Selectman Hughes moved to draft a letter in that respect on the recommendation of Rochester's Parking Clerk, Shirley A. Ferreira. For a nominal fee of $45 to the county, Rochester was able to collect some $1,090.43 in parking ticket revenue for fiscal year 1991-1992.

Chairman Brown next called in Town Accountant Claudette Coutu to discuss a matter brought up at last week's meeting concerning billing procedures from the Old Rochester Regional School District.

Ms. Coutu came before the board to ask their advice in seeking an itemized account for the latest of two invoices sent from the district every year. The board agreed to draft a letter to the ORR School District to request this information.

Chairman Brown now cited a letter from Thomas Wynne, Treasurer of the ORR School District, in response to Ms. Coutu's "unfortunate statements" made at the Selectmen's meeting of March 8.

"To set the record straight, as of this writing, you have never requested any information concerning invoices in question from members of the Central Office Staff or any Rochester members of the School Committee," Mr. Wynne wrote. "I would submit, that simply as a matter of professional courtesy, you should have done so before attempting to involve the Board of Selectmen, who, by the way, have absolutely no statutory jurisdiction over Regional School expenditures."

Mr. Wynne went on in his letter to say that the statements and actions of Ms. Coutu and the Board of Selectmen in tandem "have impugned the integrity of the Central Office Staff at ORR and the members of the Rochester School Committee. In my view, you have done a disservice to the children of Rochester." Mr. Wynne, who was present at the meeting, also attached a letter to the Board of Selectmen asking that they rescind their vote of support for Ms. Coutu's request.

"I want (Ms. Coutu) to get the information she requested," Selectman Hughes said. "I'm not going to rescind my vote."

Mr. Wynne agreed that Ms. Coutu should be supplied the information requested and he and his staff will make every effort to cooperate on this matter.

Selectman Hughes moved to waive the reading of the notices for the week, which was made unanimous by the board.

Under New Business, Chairman Brown moved that the board send a letter of appreciation to the town Highway Department for the excellent work during the weekend blizzard. Selectman Hughes agreed, adding the Police, Fire, and Civil Defense departments as well. The board unanimously moved to draft a letter to all four departments for their duty over the stormy weekend.

Chairman Brown also noted that the money they had previously budgeted for the town

Retirement Fund was overestimated by $19,154. The board moved to amend the line item, bringing the total budgeted amount to $59,747.

After adjourning from Board of Selectmen business at 9:04 pm, the three convened as the Personnel Board to briefly discuss pending matters with town employees.

Before going further, however, Selectman Hawkes said she felt strongly that such business should be handled by a separate Personnel Board and not by the Selectmen.

"I don't think we, as selectmen, should be serving as the Personnel Board," Ms. Hawkes said. "It's an infringement on our duties as Selectmen ... it just gives us another all-encompassing power."

Selectman Hawkes thereby suggested that an article be placed on the upcoming Annual Town Meeting warrant to rescind the previous article giving selectmen the authority to act as a Personnel Board. She also asked that if anyone in town might be interested in serving on a newly-established Personnel Board to please contact the Board of Selectmen's Office, c/o Town Hall.

The board then acted on pending matters with employees of the police department and decided that any officer who is scheduled to appear in court and does attend only to find that his/her case has been dismissed will be paid a minimum of 3 hours straight time. The board agreed that this, in most cases, takes away from at least half of the officer's daily compensation and is only fair.

Due to the late hour, the board agreed to meet at 6:30 pm next week (March 22) to take up further personnel matters after regular selectmen's

Announcing a childcare program designed for adults.

At the YMCA we've drawn together all the things that parents feel are most important in childcare.

For example, our professionally-trained leaders give your child the individual attention and encouragement he or she needs...to grow.

And our programs are not only fun and educationally stimulating, they also teach children important social skills, like sharing and how to get along with others.

And since we have preschool, after school and summertime programs - like day camp - we have a program designed for all kinds of children, and parents.

8:00 am chapel and 10:00 am main church services. The Junior Choir will sing at 10:00 am, along with the adult choir.

During the week following, two important events will occur. On Wednesday, March 24 a program on Domestic Violence will be held from 9:00 am to 3:00 pm at Christ Church in Plymouth. The session will be sponsored by the Episcopal Church Women in coordination with many other involved groups and is open to all who are interested. On Thursday, March 25 the Regional Five Assembly will take place at Grace Church in North Attleboro with one important agenda item being an evaluation of the current diocesan regional structure. This will be the final time Bishop Birney will make a visitation to Region 5. Five delegates are going from St. Gabriel's but all Episcopalians are welcome to attend.

St. Gabriel, the patron saint of the Marion Episcopal Church, appears on the calendar on the day of the Annunciation, March 25 this year. The first Sunday following, the parish Communion on March 28 will have a guest preacher, the Reverend John Snow, who has taught Homiletics (preaching) and pastoral theology at the Episcopal Divinity School in Cambridge and who is the author of several books. Holy Communion will also be given at 8:00 am and a youth-sponsored food sale will follow the 10:00 am service.

"Our hope is to help parents educate children about making intelligent viewing choices," said Carol Ditata, General Manager. "Parents will also find that there are many wonderful educational programs on cable that they can use at home to help enrich their children's learning experience."

"In addition, educators in the Wareham school system and Old Rochester Regional High School have participated in Cable in the Classroom workshops," said Deborah Stinson.

Cable in the Classroom programs are provided by Continental Cablevision at no charge and are presented without commercials. The programs are produced by leading cable networks and include CNN "Newsroom," The Discovery Channel's "Assignment Discovery," and Nickelodeon's "Launch Box." ## Mattapoisett Congregational Church

Most of us are "our own worst enemies." Where life can be affirmed, we are looking elsewhere; where there is cause to celebrate, we are looking for a reason to whine. What makes us unable to truly see our whole selves, and be pleased with what God has created? Perhaps this unhappiness stems from our penchant for comparison, and our competitive nature which cannot rest until it has outdone the next person.

This sinful side takes its toll on us, mentally, physically and spiritually as individuals and as a society. "Sin: The State of the Art, Part VI: Envy" will be the title of our next sermon (March 21). We look forward to you joining us at our 10:00 am worship service.

FISH Seeks Local Support

FISH is an international autonomous group of service organizations. It was established in Mattapoisett in January, 1971, offering numerous aids to Mattapoisett residents in need.

As local needs have changed and other service organizations have come into being, FISH has adapted its services to transportation, primarily for medical appointments, although occasionally another imperative may arise. FISH is ready and willing to help when the individual has no other means of transportation.

The need for volunteers is great as evidenced by FISH receiving 40 to 50 calls a month for help. The local Council on Aging (COA) office accepts all calls, sometimes providing van service to seniors. FISH provides needed transportation to anyone regardless of age. In any case, if you require transportation and have no other way to receive it, call 758-4110.

FISH at present is urgently in need of volunteers both as drivers and as telephone call receivers. It requires only 2 to 3 hours a week of your time, or 2 to 3 hours a month, if you prefer. Also, FISH is seeking someone with access to a computer to keep records for it. If you are available in any way to give some time to this community service, please call Norma Holt at 758-4986.

Book Review

A Safe Place: The True Story of a Father, a Son, a Murder
• Lorenzo Carcaterra, Villard Books, $23

Growing up in Hell's Kitchen of 1960's New York, Lorenzo Carcaterra accepted as normal some unpleasant conventions. He witnessed his father beat up his mother, just as other kids in the neighborhood saw their fathers beat their mothers, and like them Lorenzo took a few blows himself every so often. It was just the way the men behaved, alternating violence with occasional acts of generosity.

But when the author turned 14, his mother changed his perspective on this familial violence: she revealed that his father had murdered his first wife.

A Safe Place is Carcaterra's autobiographical account of his unsettling childhood and of the powerful hold his late father Mario Carcaterra has on his imagination. The book is divided into four "books," with the incidents presented in brief, intense episodes. This may or may not reflect the author's current employment as managing editor of the TV series To Cops, but either way A Safe Place is effective. Carcaterra's recollections of filial suffering are disturbing, not just because the punching and kicking are so vivid, but because mother Raffaella seems to vanish under her husband's fists. She never appears to fight, even to save the nine-year-old Lorenzo from his first beatings.

Carcaterra mentions the emotional containment he developed in his adolescence, from which he eventually freed himself to become a writer, get married, and forget his family for several years. A bit of this constraint seems to remain, for he mentions only slightly his beginnings as a writer.

That's no small thing to omit when he's relating how he became his own man by defying his unreasonably macho father, and the stark writing throughout may also come from this reserve. Still, when Carcaterra is forced to be honest with his dying father on the subject of whether or not he loves him, the plain truth is just a jolt. It's not unexpected, certainly not undeserved, but it's a regrettable answer anyway.
